

Author and Manuscript Inquiry

Date:

Author(s) name:

Address:

Telephone:

Email:

Affiliation:

Manuscript questions:

Title of manuscript:

Is this manuscript a revised version of your dissertation? Note: we do not publish unrevised dissertations.

If this is a revised dissertation please give the date completed, institution, and names of committee members. Please explain the nature of your revision.

Has your manuscript, or any part of your manuscript, been previously published or distributed? If so, do you hold copyright for the previously published material? If not, who holds the copyright for these materials?

Characteristics of the final manuscript:

How many words are in the manuscript, including notes and bibliography? If unfinished, estimate your projected word count.

Number of tables:

Maps:

Line drawings:

Photographs (please specify the number of black and white images and number of color images):

Are you prepared to submit the whole manuscript at this time?

If not, what remains to be completed?

Please summarize in a few sentences the essence of your manuscript:

What do you see as the primary audience(s) for your manuscript?

Please name a few scholars working in your field who are competent to read your manuscript. Indicate if any of these scholars have already read the work. Please include email and affiliation of anyone listed.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Please list any books (publication dates included) on the subject of your work:

What are your current research interests?

General:

Submit materials to the appropriate editor by email. Contact and list information can be found here: <http://utpress.utexas.edu/index.php/authors>. If you have any questions, please consult the UT Press website (<http://utpress.utexas.edu/>).

Please include a writing sample from this work and a current curriculum vitae with this inquiry.

NOTE: If invited to submit your manuscript for review, you should retain a completed copy in case of loss or damage in transport. We cannot accept or assume responsibility for sole copies of manuscripts or illustrative materials.

Thank you for your interest in the UT Press.